

A WAY WITH WORDS

presenter / facilitator / emcee

LOUMCGREGOR.COM ● 0422374127

In addition to her love of the written word, Lou is an engaging presenter, facilitator, lecturer, and emcee and has worked all over the world in this capacity.

She has been a part-time lecturer for the prestigious Peter Jones Academy in the UK and facilitated internal business workshops across diverse industries ranging from tourism, engineering, education, small businesses and corporate products.

Her emcee experience extends from fashion and entertainment launches through to corporate training days and community functions both locally, interstate and overseas (where she can boast Jaimie Oliver as a past client!)

Lou is available for presenting work both on the Gold Coast and Interstate.

Prices will be negotiated on an individual basis.
